By train from the airport

From Schiphol Airport there are several direct trains to the stations of The Hague: The Hague Central Station (Centraal Station) and The Hague Hollands Spoor (Station HS). By train it takes approximately 40 minutes.

Schiphol railway station is situated directly below the airport. You can pick up a free baggage trolley from the platform. Via Schiphol Plaza, you can walk straight to the departure or arrival hall.

Tickets are available from the (yellow) vending machines and the ticket offices, which are situated close to the red/white-checked cube at Schiphol Plaza. Monitors show the train departure information.

If you are departing/arriving at night or in the early morning, the railway's night network could be the answer. The night trains travel once an hour between Schiphol Airport and The Hague Central Station and vice versa. Depending on the traffic, a taxi to The Hague can take between half an hour and one and a half hour.
